DEBTORS' DETERMINATION MOTION WITH RESPECT TO CERTAIN LITIGATION CLAIMS SOLELY FOR VOTING PURPOSES PURSUANT TO BANKRUPTCY RULE 3018

The debtors and debtors in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Debtors") hereby move for entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A (the "Proposed Order"), pursuant to section 1126 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), Rule 3018 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure

¹ The Debtors in these cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: International Shipholding Corporation (9662); Enterprise Ship Co. (9059); Sulphur Carriers, Inc. (8965); Central Gulf Lines, Inc. (8979); Coastal Carriers, Inc. (6278); Waterman Steamship Corporation (0640); N.W. Johnsen & Co., Inc. (8006); LMS Shipmanagement, Inc. The service address for each of the above Debtors is 601 Poydras Street, Pan American Building, Suite 1850, New Orleans, Louisiana 70130.

(the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and the procedures set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order (as defined below) (i) temporarily allowing and modifying the litigation claims set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Order (collectively, the “Adjusted Litigation Claims”), solely for purposes of calculating votes to accept or reject the Plan (as defined herein), and (ii) temporarily disallowing the litigation claims set forth on Exhibit 2 to the Proposed Order (the “Disallowed Litigation Claims” and, together with the Adjusted Litigation Claims, the “Affected Litigation Claims”), solely for purposes of calculating votes to accept or reject the Plan. In support of this motion, the Debtors rely upon the Declaration of Harold W. Henderson in Support of the Debtors’ Determination Motion with Respect to Certain Litigation Claims Solely for Voting Purposes Pursuant To Bankruptcy Rule 3018, attached hereto as Exhibit B and the Declaration of Manuel G. Estrada in Support of the Debtors’ Determination Motion with Respect to Certain Litigation Claims Solely for Voting Purposes Pursuant To Bankruptcy Rule 3018 attached hereto as Exhibit C. In further support of this Motion, the Debtors respectfully state as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. One of the fundamental tenets of the Bankruptcy Code is to promote fairness and equity among similarly-situated creditors. In an effort to promote these principles, the Debtors are bringing this motion pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018. By this Motion, the Debtors seek to protect the plan voting rights of their legitimate creditors by reducing or disallowing the Affected Litigation Claims which have been asserted but which do not accurately reflect the Debtors’ liability.

2. As discussed in greater detail below, the Disallowed Litigation Claims arise principally from lawsuits based on alleged asbestos exposure that have been dismissed, and therefore should not be able to vote on the Debtors’ Plan. With respect to the Adjusted Litigation Claims, while such claims arise from pending actions involving the Debtors, the Debtors' actual liability with respect to these claims is significantly less than the asserted amounts in the as-filed claims. As a result, the Debtors have filed this motion to reduce or disallow these litigation-based claims for purposes of voting on the Plan.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding within the meaning of 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2).

3. Venue in this Court is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The statutory predicates for the relief requested herein are Bankruptcy Code section 1126(a), Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a), and the applicable procedures set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order.

GENERAL BACKGROUND

5. On July 31, 2016 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. The Debtors are continuing in the possession of their respective properties and the management of their respective businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 1107 and 1108. These chapter 11 cases have been consolidated for procedural purposes only. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the chapter 11 cases. On September 1, 2016, the Office of the United States Trustee for Region 2 (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed the statutory committee of unsecured creditors (the "Committee") [ECF No. 135]. On September 22, 2016, the U.S. Trustee amended the Committee's appointment [ECF No. 185].

7. The events leading up to the Petition Date and the facts and circumstances supporting the relief requested herein are set forth in the Declaration of Erik L. Johnsen,

President and Chief Executive Officer, Pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 1007-2 and in Support of First Day Filings [Docket No. 7] (the “First Day Declaration”), and are incorporated herein by reference.

8. On January 10, 2017, the Court entered an order [ECF No. 517] (the “Disclosure Statement Order”) approving the disclosure statement [ECF No. 537] (the “Disclosure Statement”) to the First Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization for International Shipholding Corporation and its Affiliated Debtors [ECF No. 536] (the “Plan”) and establishing certain procedures (the “Solicitation Procedures”) for the solicitation and tabulation of votes to accept or reject the Plan. The Disclosure Statement Order established December 30, 2016, as the voting record date (the “Voting Record Date”) for purposes of determining the creditors and interest holders of the Debtors entitled to receive the Plan solicitation package or non-voting notice, as applicable, and to vote on the Plan.

9. Immediately following the Court’s entry of the Disclosure Statement Order, the Debtors commenced the solicitation process with respect to the Plan. A hearing to consider confirmation of the Plan is scheduled for February 16, 2017 at 10:00 a.m. (prevailing Eastern Time).

SPECIFIC BACKGROUND

10. On November 1, 2016, the Court entered an order [ECF No. 302] (the “Bar Date Order”) establishing, with certain limited exceptions, December 16, 2016, at 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) (the “General Bar Date”) as the deadline by which each person or entity (other than a governmental unit) must file a proof of claim against the appropriate Debtor or Debtors. The Bar Date Order established January 27, 2017, at 5:00 p.m. (Eastern Time) (the “Governmental Bar Date”) as the deadline by which governmental units must file a proof of claim against the Debtor or Debtors. Pursuant to paragraph (e) of the Bar Date Order, proofs of claim filed against the Debtors must be submitted in the English language and denominated in United States currency. As of the date hereof, approximately 1,400 claims have been filed against the Debtors.

11. A significant number of these filed claims are against Debtors Waterman Steamship Corporation (“Waterman”), Central Gulf Lines, Inc. (“Central Gulf”), and Sulphur Carriers Inc. (“Sulphur Carriers”) arising from current and dismissed lawsuits claiming damages related to alleged asbestos-related non-malignancies and malignancies. Specifically, 816 proofs of claim (the “Asbestos Claims”) have been filed against Waterman, Central Gulf, and Sulphur Carriers on behalf of alleged asbestos claimants. The Asbestos Claims were filed by the Jaques Admiralty Law Firm on behalf of these claimants for significant amounts ranging from $150,000 to $3,000,000, with the majority of the claims alleged to be $1,000,000. However, the lone supporting evidentiary documentation for the Asbestos Claims was an almost identical single-page “Exhibit A” attached to each claim which provides the following brief and conclusory information:

Claimant was a seaman aboard one or more of the Debtor’s vessels. While aboard said vessel(s), he was exposed to asbestos which gives rise to claims premised on violations of the Jones Act (46 USCS § 30104) and the General Maritime and Admiralty Doctrine of Unseaworthiness. As a result of this exposure he was diagnosed with an asbestos related disease. He died as a result which gives rise to a wrongful death cause of action.

The Asbestos Claims otherwise contained only the official proof of claim form and a copy of a nonspecific letter from the Jaques Admiralty Law Firm describing the amount of claims filed against each Debtor. The Asbestos Claims did not include any specific information regarding the date of the alleged diagnosis or the methodology utilized to calculate the Debtors’ alleged liability.

12. As of the Petition Date, Waterman was named as a defendant in ninety-eight (98) lawsuits and Central Gulf was named as defendant in thirty-seven (37) lawsuits in various state and federal courts arising from asbestosis claims. Although insurance and the indemnification rights² of Waterman against a third party mitigate the Debtors' exposure,³ the Debtors have established reserves based on an analysis performed in conjunction with outside counsel of the overall exposure arising from such claims. Specifically, the Debtors and outside counsel first determine an appropriate claim amount for each claim against the applicable Debtor entity, taking into account potential liability of unrelated third-party companies. The Debtors next determine their reserve amounts by (i) allocating a percentage of the total claim liability to a specific year on the Debtors' vessel(s) (based on the claimant's known sea service), and (ii) determining the applicable insurer and deductible for that year. The Debtors' reserve amounts, and thus their actual liability on account of these claims, is ultimately determined by adding up the various deductibles per year.

13. The Debtors' historical reserves for projected aggregate out-of-pocket liability with respect to insurance deductibles owing on account of these lawsuits as of December 31, 2016, December 31, 2015 and December 31, 2014, were approximately $450,000, $292,000, and $352,000, respectively.⁴ The Debtors believe that these reserves represent the best available

² The applicable insurance policies typically require an insured to "pay first" to trigger said insurance coverage.

⁴ There is a reasonable possibility that there will be future claims associated with occupational diseases, including asbestosis, asserted against the Debtors. However, the Debtors do not believe that it is reasonably possible that exposure from those claims will be material because (1) the relevant lawsuits filed since 1989 claiming damages related to occupational diseases in which the Debtors have been named as a defendant have primarily involved seamen that served on-board vessels and the number of such persons still eligible to file a lawsuit against the Debtors is diminishing and (2) the Debtors believe such potential additional claims, if pursued, would be covered estimate for future aggregate out-of-pocket liability with respect to insurance deductibles on such claims, and further that the Debtor's aggregate liability with respect to the Asbestos Claims are not more than the Debtors' historical because the lawsuits involving the majority of these alleged asbestosis claimants have previously been dismissed or settled. Accordingly, based on the Debtors' historical and current reserve amounts, the Debtors believe their aggregate out-of-pocket liability with respect to insurance deductibles owing on account of the Adjusted Litigation Claims is approximately $300,000, or $5,000 per Adjusted Litigation Claim.

14. With respect to a large majority of the Asbestos Claims, however, such claims have previously been dismissed. Specifically, 744 claims were dismissed on personal jurisdiction grounds, almost all in 2014. In addition, 46 claims were "bankruptcy-only-docket dismissals" from 2010 through 2013, meaning that claims against all entities who were not subject to a bankruptcy proceeding at the time the applicable order was entered were dismissed and only claims against entities in bankruptcy at the time of the dismissal survived. Finally, seven claims were dismissed for other reasons. The remaining filed Asbestos Claims are open claims, however the Debtors believe that they have no liability with respect to these claims.

RELIEF REQUESTED

15. By this Motion, the Debtors are not requesting the Court to determine the validity or ultimate allowance of claims for any purposes relating to distributions under the Plan. Rather, the Debtors seek entry of the Proposed Order to ensure that parties entitled to vote on the Plan do so in the amounts that the Debtors believe are appropriate based on their review of the Asbestos Claims filed on or prior to the Record Date. Accordingly, the Debtors request entry of the Proposed Order:

under either or both of (i) the indemnification agreement identified above or (ii) one or more of the Debtors' existing insurance policies with deductibles ranging from $1,500 to $25,000 per claim.

- (i) temporarily allowing and modifying the Adjusted Litigation Claims set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Order in the amount of $5,000 each; and
- (ii) temporarily disallowing the Disallowed Litigation Claims listed on Exhibit 2 to the Proposed Order.

16. By this Motion, the Debtors are requesting that the Affected Litigation Claims be allowed in a modified amount or disallowed solely for voting purposes. Nothing set forth herein or in the Proposed Order shall be deemed an admission by the Debtors of any liability with respect to the claims discussed herein or set forth on the exhibits to the Proposed Order, and the Proposed Order shall not be deemed an order allowing or disallowing any of the Affected Litigation Claims for purposes of distribution under the Plan. The Debtors reserve the right to object to each and every Affected Litigation Claim on all grounds, whether substantive or non-substantive.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

17. The holders of the claims and interests are only permitted to vote on a plan to the extent that their claims are “allowed.” See 11 U.S.C. § 1126(a). Bankruptcy Rule 3018 permits the Court to allow a creditors’ claim for voting purposes. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3018(a) (“[T]he court after notice and hearing may temporarily allow the claim or interest in an amount which the court deems proper for the purpose of accepting and rejecting a plan.”). Bankruptcy Rule 3018 “was designed to give all creditors, even those holding disputed claims, the opportunity to vote and provided the means of accomplishing this.” In re Century Glove, Inc., 88 B.R. 45, 46 (Bankr. D. Del. 1988).

18. Courts recognize that Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a) also permits a party in interest to seek to disallow a claim for voting purposes. Ultimately, the determination of whether to temporarily allow a claim for voting purposes lies within the discretion of the bankruptcy court. See Armstrong v. Rushton (In re Armstrong), 294 B.R. 344, 354 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. 2003) (“There is no guidance in the Bankruptcy Code to courts as to determine whether to permit the temporary allowance of a claim; it is left to the court’s discretion.”). Indeed, Courts have broad authority to determine whether to allow or disallow a claim for purposes of voting under Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a). See, e.g., Pension Benefit Guar. Corp. v. Enron Corp., 2004 WL 2434928 *1, *5 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 1, 2004) (stating that a court has discretion to estimate claims in any reasonable manner so that any one creditor does not exercise a disproportionate amount of control over reorganization relative to the potential economic value of its claim); In re Mangia Pizza Invs., L.P., 480 B.R. 669, 679 (Bankr. W.D. Tex. 2012) (noting that “[t]he court has broad authority to determine whether to allow or disallow a claim for purposes of voting” under Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a)); In re Zolner, 174 B.R. 629, 633 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1994) (noting that a court must exercise its discretion to allow or disallow a claim under Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a) “based on reasoned analysis”); In re Goldstein, 114 B.R. 430, 433 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1990); 9 Collier on Bankr. ¶ 3018[5] (16th ed. rev. 2012) (“The court, however, regardless of the circumstances, has the discretion to allow or disallow all or part of the claim for voting purposes.”).

19. In addition, the solicitation procedures set forth in the Disclosure Statement Order provide as follows, in relevant part:

The Debtors may object to any claim (as defined in Bankruptcy Code section 101(5)) solely for Plan voting purposes by filing a determination motion (the “Determination Motion”) If a Determination Motion is filed, the ruling by the Court on the Determination Motion shall be considered a ruling with respect to the allowance of the claim(s) under Bankruptcy Rule 3018 and such claim(s) shall be counted, for voting purposes only, in the amount determined by the Court. The filing of a Determination Motion or a ruling by the Court thereon shall not affect the right or ability of the Debtors or any other party in interest to later object to such claim(s) for any other purposes, including distribution under the Plan.

Disclosure Statement Order, ¶ 14.

20. Whether a claim should be temporarily allowed for voting purposes should be evaluated in light of the “underlying purposes of the [Bankruptcy] Code.” In re Stone Hedge Properties, 191 B.R. 59, 65 (Bankr. M.D. Pa. 1995). “One of the primary goals—if not the primary goal—of the [Bankruptcy] Code is to ensure that similarly-situated creditors are treated fairly and enjoy an equality of distribution from a debtor absent a compelling reason to depart from this principle.” In re SemCrude, L.P., 399 B.R. 388, 399 (Bankr. D. Del. 2009), aff’d, 428 B.R. 590 (D. Del. 2010). Bankruptcy Rule 3018 acts as a companion to, and is representative of, the Bankruptcy Code’s goals of promoting fairness and equity among creditors.

21. Although Bankruptcy Rule 3018 does not provide guidance with respect to its application, bankruptcy courts have looked to the following factors when evaluating whether a claim should be temporarily allowed for voting purposes: “(1) whether the objection was filed late or ‘at the last minute,’ either to ensure acceptance of a plan or to avoid a proper hearing; (2) whether allowance or non-allowance of the claim will delay the administration of the case; and (3) whether the objection was frivolous.” In re Mangia Pizza Invs., L.P., 480 B.R. at 680.

22. In addition, in the analogous context of claim objections, Bankruptcy Code section 502(a) provides that a filed proof of claim is “deemed allowed, unless a party in interest . . . objects.” 11 U.S.C. § 502(a).⁵ If the claim is properly filed, it is prima facie evidence that the claim is valid. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001(f). Although Bankruptcy Rule 3001(f) establishes the initial evidentiary effect of a filed claim, the burden of proof rests on different parties at different times. In re Allegheny Int'l, Inc., 954 F.2d 167, 173 (3d Cir. 1992). Claims objections thus cause a shifting burden of proof. Correctly filed proofs of claim “constitute prima facie evidence of the validity of the claim To overcome this prima facie evidence, an objecting party must come forth with evidence which, if believed, would refute at least one of the allegations essential to the claim.” Sherman v. Novak (In re Reilly), 245 B.R. 768, 773 (B.A.P. 2d Cir. 2000). By producing “evidence equal in force to the prima facie case,” an objector can negate a claim’s presumptive legal validity, thereby shifting the burden back to the claimant to “prove by a preponderance of the evidence that under applicable law the claim should be allowed.” Creamer v. Motors Liquidation Co. GUC Trust (In re Motors Liquidation Co.), 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 143957 at *3 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 26, 2013); see In re MF Global Holdings Ltd., 2012 Bankr. LEXIS 5297 at *3 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 13, 2012). If the objector does not “introduce[] evidence as to the invalidity of the claim or the excessiveness of its amount, the claimant need offer no further proof of the merits of the claim.” 4 Collier on Bankruptcy ¶ 502.02; see also In re Residential Capital, LLC, 507 B.R. 477, 490 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2014). However, Bankruptcy Code section 502(b)(1) provides that claims may be disallowed if “unenforceable against the debtor and property of the debtor, under any agreement or applicable law.” To determine whether a claim is allowable by law, bankruptcy courts look to “applicable nonbankruptcy law.” In re W.R. Grace & Co., 346 B.R. 672, 674 (Bankr. D. Del. 2006).

23. Taking into consideration the foregoing factors, and for purposes of voting on the Plan, the Court should temporarily (i) reduce the Adjusted Litigation Claims set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Order such that each Adjusted Litigation Claim is in the amount of $5,000 and (ii) disallow the Disallowed Litigation Claims listed on Exhibit 2 to the Proposed Order. First, this Motion was neither filed late, nor was it filed to ensure acceptance of the Plan or avoid a proper hearing. The Debtors requested, and the Court approved through the Disclosure Statement Order, procedures with respect to Bankruptcy Rule 3018 on January 10, 2017. The Debtors requested this process in an effort to lay the foundation for the most equitable and fair process for voting on the Plan, consistent with the underlying purpose of the Bankruptcy Code.

24. Second, allowance in a modified amount or disallowance of the Claims will not delay the administration of these cases. To the contrary, a large number of the Asbestos Claims have been dismissed and if the Plan confirmation were continued so that these claims could be liquidated for purposes of permitting them to vote in a fixed amount, this would cause delays that would adversely impact the administration of these chapter 11 cases and the Debtors' creditors and other stakeholders.

25. Third, the basis for this Motion is not frivolous. As noted above, the large majority of the Disallowed Litigation Claims, which in turn constitute most of the Asbestos Claims, were previously dismissed in 2014 on the basis on lack of personal jurisdiction. In addition, certain additional claims were dismissed as "bankruptcy-only-docket" claims, meaning that claims against all non-bankrupt entities were dismissed and only claims against entities in bankruptcy at the time of the dismissal survived, and a small subset of claims were dismissed for other reasons as provided on Exhibit 2 to the Proposed Order. Certain of the Disallowed Litigation Claims remain open, however the Debtors assert that they have no liability with respect to these claims.

26. With respect to the Adjusted Litigation Claims, based on their analysis described above with respect to the applicable reserve amounts, the Debtors' liability with respect to these is significantly less than the asserted amounts in the respective proofs of claims. The Debtors believe that their aggregate out-of-pocket liability on account of the Adjusted Litigation Claims is approximately $300,000, or $5,000 per Adjusted Litigation Claim.

27. In addition, on their face, the proofs of claim for all of the Affected Litigation Claims contain almost no supporting evidence for the validity of the underlying claim or any basis upon which the dismissals of these Affected Litigation Claims should not eliminate the claims. Although properly filed, there is considerable doubt whether sufficient information has been alleged to constitute prima facie evidence of the validity of the claim. There is no statement of which vessels were involved, when the alleged injuries were incurred, or any description of prior litigation, which in many cases resulted in dismissal. Nevertheless, the Debtors have overcome any prima facie evidence and negated any claim's presumptive legal validity, thereby shifting the burden back to these claimants to "prove by a preponderance of the evidence that under applicable law the claim should be allowed." It is clear that the proofs of claim for the Affected Litigation Claims do not meet this burden.

28. Through this Motion, the Debtors are trying to ensure that the votes of all of the creditors of various classes of claims are given their due weight. More specifically, in light of the fact that the Adjusted Litigation Claims are filed in amounts well in excess of the Debtors' liability and the Disallowed Litigation Claims have previously been dismissed, these creditors should not be permitted to control the general unsecured claim class under the Plan by voting the full face amount of their claims. By reducing or disallowing the Affected Litigation Claims, such creditors will be prevented from rendering meaningless the votes of the other claimants in the general unsecured claims class. Permitting these claimants to vote the face amounts of their litigation claims would effectively disenfranchise most, if not all, other members of the general unsecured claims class. For these reasons, and to further the purpose of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court should modify and temporarily allow or disallow, as applicable, the Affected Litigation Claims for voting purposes pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a).

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that this Court (i) temporarily allow and modifying the amounts of the Adjusted Litigation Claims set forth on Exhibit 1 to the Proposed Order; and (ii) temporarily disallow the Disallowed Litigation Claims listed on Exhibit 2 to the Proposed Order.
